I am writing to apply for the Sales Development Representative position at Krauss GmbH. What stands out to me about this role is the focus on building genuine connections over the phone rather than pushing for a sale. The idea of opening doors for well-known brands like Electrolux Professional and Franke, while being trained by professional coaches, is a compelling combination.

In my previous work as a web developer, I spent years communicating with clients, understanding their needs, and explaining technical concepts to non-technical stakeholders. That experience taught me how to listen carefully, ask the right questions, and build trust quickly. I am comfortable on the phone, persistent without being pushy, and genuinely enjoy talking to new people.

I am looking for a role with structure and real growth potential. The training program at Krauss is a major draw for me. I want to learn from people whose job it is to train professionals, and I am ready to put in the work to become excellent at this craft.

In addition to my professional experience, I work effectively in team environments and communicate clearly across different backgrounds. I am fluent in Bengali and English, have working knowledge of Russian and Hindi, and enjoy collaborating in international settings.

I have attached my CV for your review. I would welcome the chance to speak with Vanessa or anyone on the team to discuss how I can contribute to Krauss GmbH.

Sincerely,

Md Shahanur Islam Shagor
